

Explanation of Medications

Amoxicillin is an antibiotic.

PenVK (Penicillin) is an antibiotic.

Decodran is a medication to help with swelling.

Motrin 800mg is a medication for pain.

Ondansetron is medication for upset stomach. It is anti-nausea.

Chlorhexidine Gluconate (Perioguard) is a mouthwash to help keep the mouth clean and fights infection. You need to use this one day after the surgery, not the same day.

Clindamycin is an antibiotic.

Metronidazole is an antibiotic. Do not drink alcohol with it.

Vicodin is a narcotic medication. It can cause upset stomach.

Percocet is a narcotic medication. It can cause upset stomach.

If you are given an antibiotic for premedication, please follow the instruction on the bottle.